Practical and effective solutions for your business' legal needs

INTRODUCTION

Whether you are an entrepreneur just starting a business or the owner of a large corporation that has been established for years, the business law attorneys at Bolhouse, Baar & Lefere can help you every step of the way.

OUR APPROACH

We work with you to develop not only long-term business strategies to help you reach your goals, but also plans for dealing with the legal issues that arise from day-to-day operations.

The scope of our relationship is defined by each individual client, ranging from general counsel services covering all aspects of your business needs, services as local counsel for organizations headquartered outside Michigan, or even as limited as a single, unique issue, where professional experience and prudent advice are necessary.

Our experience in corporate structuring, taxation, commercial real estate, employment law, collections, and contract law will assist you in establishing, protecting, and growing your organization.

We pledge to listen, learn, and understand your needs and work as a team with you to develop and implement positive, successful, and cost-effective solutions to your business' legal issues.

Our business law attorneys routinely conduct business law seminars in conjunction with local Chambers of Commerce. Topics generally include business formation, employment law and collections. If you would like to attend a future seminar, please call our office.
